WEE TEACH U, LLC JOINS NATIONAL CELEBRATION OF WEEK OF THE YOUNG CHILD

Building Better Futures for All Children

March 27, 2007 – Wee Teach U, LLC celebrates Week of the Young Child (April 22-28, 2007) to recognize the needs of young children and thank educators and others involved in building better futures for all children. Week of the Young Child is celebrated across the country by hundreds of local organizations working to improve opportunities for all young children.

“Early learning experiences are crucial to the growth and development of young children,” said Beth Ezar, Owner of Wee Teach U. “Week of the Young Child is a time when we can all work to recognize the importance of providing early learning opportunities and working to build better futures for all young children.”

Week of the Young Child, sponsored by the National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC), is an opportunity for early childhood programs across the country, including child care and Head Start programs, preschools and elementary schools, to hold activities to bring awareness to the needs of young children.

Across the country, young children and their families depend on quality education and care, which help children get a great start, and bring lasting benefits for our society as a whole. Week of the Young Child is a time to recognize the people, programs and policies that are helping to build better futures for all children.

Wee Teach U owner, Beth Ezar’s focus is to work together with childhood professionals to improve professional practice and working conditions in early childhood education, and to build public support for high quality early childhood education programs.
